What should I expect from “Blended” vs “Remote” Instruction

“Blended” Instruction

Bulldog Fridays to offer club activities (both in-person and remote), in-person tutoring, and extended office hours to connect with teachers synchronously.

For one day each week, students come into the building for in-person synchronous instruction. Teachers of the class will provide mostly asynchronous activities for the other days.

“Remote” Instruction

Four days a week, students meet with their teachers for synchronous instruction utilizing remote platforms.

NOTE: Families who did not request “Remote” on the Learning Preference survey are assumed to choose “Blended”
<https://www.nycenet.edu/surveys/learningpreference>

Once school begins, the next window to change this preference will be in November 2020

Some essential reminders regarding In-Building safety protocols

- Everyone must wear a face mask when in the building (students, faculty, and staff)

Although individuals are encouraged to bring their own, we will have a supply on hand to provide to those in need

Students who refuse to wear a mask put others at risk and will be switched to a “Remote” schedule

- Before entering the building students, faculty, and staff must show that they filled out a daily health check survey
- Random temperature checks will occur for students entering the campus
- All faculty, staff, and visitors will be screened for temperature upon entry
- Students who come to school on the wrong day will be sent home
- ALL MUST observe social distancing and should avoid unnecessary contact with surfaces
