GOOD NEWS AT LICHS: CUL

Congratulations to our culinary students who competed in the Careers through Culinary Arts Program's <https://ccapinc.org/> cooking competition for scholarships. Students had to create a cucumber and bell pepper salad as well as various knife skills and French omelets at Monroe College in a one hour challenge. The competition is a two part series, students who moved on to round two created a Supreme Poulet Chasseur avec Pommes Chateau (Hunter's Chicken with turned, sautéed potatoes) and a dessert dish, Crepes Sucrees (sweet crepes) with Creme Patissiere (pastry cream) topped with Sauce au Chocolat (chocolate sauce). LICHS students received the following awards:

Cristian Ochoa – Elizabeth Alston Scholarship - $6,000

Jaycee Fernandez – Dr. Patricia S. Bartholomew Scholarship - $5,000

Daniel Flowers – Lilli Lynton Scholarship - $5,000

Yi Jing Cheng – Johnson and Wales Full tuition 4 year Scholarship - $128,364

Wendy Molina (junior competitor) Monroe Bootcamp Scholarship (4 days hands-on cooking course)
